

Surfshark information notice on the processing of personal data

This information notice is intended for you as a participant in an event organized by Surfshark B.V. ("Surfshark"). In this message you will find the most important information about how Surfshark handles your personal data.

If you have any further questions about your rights as a data subject, please contact us at the contacts below.

Surfshark will process the following categories of personal data:

- Full name
- Email address
- Country
- Company name
- Job title
- Your question for the online event (optional)

To organize this event, Surfshark processes the personal data of participants and speakers for the following purposes:

- To ensure the smoothness of the remote event;
- Administration of registration of participants to the event;
- Necessary event communication, including but not limited to forwarding all required information related to the event, or sharing video recording of the event;
- For networking purposes, if you have given your consent for us to reach out to you.

Surfshark processes your personal data for the above purposes based on our legitimate interest to organize events and ensure quality of the remote event, as well as to send you information about the event. We process your contact details for networking purposes based on your consent, which can be revoked at any time by contacting us via email (see contact details below).

Please be informed that as a data subject you have the following rights:

- Access to your data and how it is processed (right of access);
- Require the rectification or, depending on the purposes of the processing of personal data, the addition of incomplete personal data (right of rectification);
- In certain cases, right to request the erasure of your data (right to be "forgotten");
- In certain cases, request us to restrict the processing of personal data (right to restrict);
- In certain cases, the right to data portability;
- Object to the processing of your data by providing a reasoned explanation;
- File a complaint with your local supervisory authority.

If reasonably necessary, Surfshark may share your personal data with event service providers, e.g. customer, IT service providers, etc. In other cases, Surfshark will transfer your personal data only if it is obliged to do so by the applicable legal acts and only by ensuring the security of the transferred data.

The term of storage of personal data of event participants is 12 months after the end of the event.
